Overview of Aon Hewitt Pension Services

Aon Hewitt pension services encompass a wide range of offerings aimed at helping organizations effectively manage their employee retirement benefits. These services include pension plan design, actuarial consulting, administration, investment advisory, and regulatory compliance support. Aon Hewitt's expertise enables employers to develop tailored pension solutions that align with their corporate objectives and workforce needs. By leveraging data analytics and market insights, Aon Hewitt ensures that pension plans are sustainable and competitive in a changing economic landscape.

Types of Pension Plans Managed by Aon Hewitt

Aon Hewitt manages various types of pension plans, each designed to meet different organizational and employee needs. Understanding these plan types is essential for selecting the most appropriate pension solution.

Defined Benefit Plans

Defined benefit (DB) plans promise a specified monthly benefit at retirement, often calculated through a formula based on salary and years of service. Aon Hewitt provides actuarial and consulting services to design and maintain these plans, focusing on funding adequacy and risk management.

Defined Contribution Plans

Defined contribution (DC) plans, such as 401(k) plans, involve contributions from employers and/or employees to individual accounts. The retirement benefit depends on the contributions made and investment performance. Aon Hewitt offers administration and investment advisory services to optimize DC plans.

Hybrid and Cash Balance Plans

Hybrid plans combine features of DB and DC plans, offering flexibility and predictable benefits. Cash balance plans are a popular hybrid design that Aon Hewitt helps implement and manage, balancing employer cost control with employee retirement security.

Plan Design and Consulting

Effective pension plan design is crucial for balancing cost, risk, and employee satisfaction. Aon Hewitt's consulting services assist employers in creating pension arrangements that meet regulatory requirements and align with business strategies. This includes benefit structuring, eligibility criteria, and vesting schedules.

Customizing Pension Benefits

Aon Hewitt works with organizations to tailor pension benefits based on workforce demographics, financial goals, and competitive positioning. This customization ensures that the pension plan supports talent attraction and retention.

Scenario Modeling and Forecasting

Using sophisticated modeling tools, Aon Hewitt projects the financial impact of various plan designs under different economic scenarios. This helps employers understand long-term obligations and funding needs.

Pension Plan Administration and Management

Administration is a critical component of pension management, requiring precision, compliance, and effective communication with plan participants. Aon Hewitt offers comprehensive administration services that streamline plan operations and enhance participant engagement.

Record Keeping and Participant Services

Aon Hewitt maintains accurate records of contributions, earnings, and distributions, ensuring transparency and trust. The firm also provides participant education and support to help employees understand their pension benefits.

Compliance and Reporting

Meeting regulatory requirements is a complex task for pension plans. Aon Hewitt handles compliance filings, audits, and reporting, reducing administrative burden for employers and minimizing legal risks.

Actuarial Services and Funding Strategies

Actuarial expertise is essential for assessing pension liabilities and ensuring plans are adequately funded. Aon Hewitt employs experienced actuaries who provide valuations, risk assessments, and funding advice.

Valuation and Liability Measurement

Regular actuarial valuations measure the present value of pension obligations, helping employers understand their funding status and make informed contribution decisions.

Funding Policy Development

Aon Hewitt assists in developing funding policies that balance employer cash flow with the long-term sustainability of the pension plan. Strategies may include contribution smoothing and risk mitigation techniques.

Investment Management for Pension Funds

Investment performance significantly influences pension plan health. Aon Hewitt offers investment consulting services that focus on asset allocation, manager selection, and risk management tailored to pension fund objectives.

Strategic Asset Allocation

Aon Hewitt helps pension plans develop strategic asset allocation models that optimize returns while controlling risk based on plan liabilities and risk tolerance.

Investment Monitoring and Reporting

Ongoing monitoring and performance reporting ensure that pension fund investments remain aligned with objectives, allowing timely adjustments when necessary.

Compliance and Regulatory Support

Pension plans must comply with complex regulations, including ERISA, IRS rules, and other federal and state requirements. Aon Hewitt provides expertise to navigate these regulations efficiently.

Regulatory Updates and Impact Analysis

Aon Hewitt keeps clients informed about regulatory changes and assesses their impact on existing pension plans, enabling proactive plan adjustments.

Audit and Risk Management Support

The firm supports clients through pension plan audits and helps implement risk management frameworks to maintain regulatory compliance and safeguard plan assets.
