- Day 1: Chicago to Milwaukee
- Day 2: Milwaukee to Door County
- Day 3: Door County to Green Bay and Ludington
- Day 4: Ludington to Grand Rapids and Holland
- Day 5: Holland to Chicago

Day 1: Chicago to Milwaukee

The first day of the Lake Michigan circle tour in 5 days begins in Chicago, Illinois, a bustling metropolis known for its architecture, museums, and lakefront parks. Departing from Chicago, the route heads north along the western shore of Lake Michigan toward Milwaukee, Wisconsin. This leg covers approximately 90 miles and offers a perfect introduction to the lake's urban and natural appeal.

Exploring Chicago's Lakefront Attractions

Before leaving Chicago, visitors can explore iconic lakefront sites such as Millennium Park, Navy Pier, and the Chicago Riverwalk. These locations provide scenic views, cultural experiences, and dining options. The city's expansive lakefront trail is ideal for a morning walk or bike ride.

Driving to Milwaukee and Key Stops

Traveling north on Interstate 94 or the scenic Highway 41, the journey passes through picturesque suburbs and natural preserves. Recommended stops include:

- Indiana Dunes National Park – offers sand dunes, hiking trails, and beach access
- Kenosha – a charming lakeside town with a historic streetcar and museums

Arriving in Milwaukee, visitors can explore the city's brewing heritage, cultural institutions, and lakefront parks.

Day 2: Milwaukee to Door County

On the second day, the tour continues northward along Lake Michigan's western shore into Wisconsin's scenic Door County peninsula. This area is renowned for its small towns, lighthouses, and outdoor recreation opportunities. The drive from Milwaukee to Door County covers roughly 120 miles.

Milwaukee Highlights Before Departure

Before departing Milwaukee, highlights include the Milwaukee Art Museum, with its distinctive architecture, and the Historic Third Ward, known for galleries, boutiques, and dining. The city's lakefront offers bike trails and parks to enjoy morning activities.

Exploring Door County's Villages and Nature

Door County features vibrant communities such as Sturgeon Bay, Fish Creek, and Ephraim. Visitors can enjoy:

- State parks with hiking and shoreline access, including Peninsula State Park
- Historic lighthouses and maritime museums
- Local artisans' shops and waterfront dining

Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate kayaking, boating, and scenic drives through rural landscapes.

Day 3: Door County to Green Bay and Ludington

The third day involves heading southwest from Door County to Green Bay, then crossing into Michigan to reach Ludington on the eastern shore of Lake Michigan. This route encompasses approximately 150 miles, combining urban exploration with small-town charm.

Green Bay's Cultural and Historical Attractions

Green Bay offers several attractions including the Green Bay Packers' Lambeau Field for sports fans and the National Railroad Museum. The Bay Beach Amusement Park provides family-friendly entertainment along the shoreline.

Crossing into Michigan and Reaching Ludington

After Green Bay, the tour crosses into Michigan and follows US-10 toward Ludington, a popular lakeside destination. Ludington State Park features dunes, beaches, and hiking trails, providing ample opportunity to enjoy Lake Michigan's natural beauty.

Day 4: Ludington to Grand Rapids and Holland

Day four directs travelers south along the Michigan shoreline, with stops in Grand Rapids and Holland. This segment covers about 120 miles and highlights urban culture and Dutch heritage within Michigan's lakeshore region.

Grand Rapids' Art and Brewery Scene

Grand Rapids is known for its vibrant art community, including the Frederik Meijer Gardens & Sculpture Park and numerous craft breweries. Visitors can explore downtown galleries, museums, and culinary venues before continuing south.

Holland's Dutch Influence and Waterfront

Holland, Michigan, is famous for its Dutch architecture, tulip gardens, and annual Tulip Time Festival. The city's lakefront beaches and historic Windmill Island Gardens offer picturesque settings to experience regional culture and nature.

Day 5: Holland to Chicago

The final day completes the Lake Michigan circle tour in 5 days by returning to Chicago. The approximately 140-mile drive follows the eastern shore of Lake Michigan through smaller towns and natural areas in southwestern Michigan and northern Indiana.

Stops Along the Route to Chicago

Travelers can stop in towns such as:

- South Haven – known for its marina, lighthouse, and beach
- St. Joseph – featuring a historic downtown and Silver Beach County Park
- Michigan City, Indiana – home to the Indiana Dunes State Park and shopping outlets

This final stretch showcases tranquil lake views and recreational opportunities before arriving back in Chicago, concluding the circle tour around Lake Michigan.
