Early Relationships and Beginnings

The early phase of Ranbir Kapoor's dating history is marked by relationships that occurred before and during his rise to stardom. Coming from the illustrious Kapoor family, Ranbir was introduced to the film industry with much anticipation. During this period, his personal life was relatively private, though some early relationships did attract media attention. These initial relationships helped shape his approach to romance and public engagements. The beginning of his dating history provides a foundation for understanding his evolving public image and the increasing media interest in his personal affairs.

Relationship with Avantika Malik

One of Ranbir's earliest known relationships was with Avantika Malik, a television actress. The couple reportedly dated during their college days, and their relationship lasted for several years. Despite their young love, the relationship ended amicably as both individuals focused on their respective careers. This phase is significant because it marked Ranbir's first serious experience with love, which he has occasionally referenced in interviews as a learning experience.

Initial Media Exposure

During his initial years in Bollywood, Ranbir's dating history began to garner media attention. However, the actor maintained a relatively low profile, managing to keep his romantic life discreet compared to other celebrities. This period was characterized by subtle media speculation and occasional paparazzi coverage, setting the stage for more intense scrutiny in later years.

Notable Relationships Through the Years

Ranbir Kapoor's dating history includes several high-profile relationships with some of Bollywood's leading actresses. These relationships were marked by intense media coverage and public interest, often becoming headline news. Each relationship contributed to Ranbir's evolving image as a romantic hero on and off screen. The following are some of the most notable relationships that define this phase of his dating history.

Relationship with Deepika Padukone

Ranbir Kapoor and Deepika Padukone's relationship was one of the most talked-about romances in Bollywood. The two actors met on the sets of multiple films, including "Bachna Ae Haseeno" and "Yeh Jawaani Hai Deewani." Their chemistry on and off screen fueled media speculation about their dating status. The relationship lasted for several years and was characterized by both public appearances and private moments shared with the media. Despite their eventual breakup, Ranbir and Deepika maintained mutual respect and professionalism.

Relationship with Katrina Kaif

Following his relationship with Deepika, Ranbir Kapoor's dating history included a high-profile romance with Katrina Kaif. The pair met during the filming of "Ajab Prem Ki Ghazab Kahani" and later starred together in "Raajneeti" and "Barfi!" Their relationship was widely covered by the media, with frequent reports about their closeness and rumored breakups. Ranbir and Katrina's relationship lasted several years before they amicably parted ways, continuing to work together professionally even after their breakup.

Relationship with Alia Bhatt

Ranbir's most recent and currently public relationship is with actress Alia Bhatt. Their dating history began on the sets of "Brahmāstra" and blossomed into a highly publicized romance. The couple has been open about their relationship, frequently appearing together at events and supporting each other's careers. Their engagement and subsequent marriage marked a significant milestone in Ranbir's personal life, indicating a more settled phase in his dating history.
