The Arlington church provides well-maintained facilities that accommodate regular worship services, Bible studies, and special events. Services are conducted with a focus on scriptural teachings, prayer, and communal worship. The church also offers child-friendly environments and youth programs to engage younger members in the faith journey. Accessibility and comfort are prioritized to encourage participation from all community members.

Core Beliefs and Teachings

The World Mission Society Church of God Arlington upholds unique doctrinal beliefs that distinguish it from other Christian denominations. Central to its faith is the belief in God the Mother alongside God the Father, a concept rooted in biblical interpretation and emphasized throughout its teachings. The church teaches the importance of following the commandments of God and the teachings of Jesus Christ to attain salvation and eternal life.

God the Mother and God the Father

One of the most notable beliefs of the World Mission Society Church of God is the existence of God the Mother, complementing God the Father. This doctrine is based on the church's interpretation of scriptures that reference a spiritual mother, asserting that understanding both divine parents is essential for true salvation. This belief shapes much of the church's theology and worship practices.

Salvation and Eternal Life

The church teaches that salvation is granted through obedience to God's commandments and accepting both God the Mother and God the Father. Members are encouraged to live according to biblical principles and participate in sacraments and rituals that symbolize spiritual renewal and eternal life. This focus on salvation through divine parents is a cornerstone of the church's faith and outreach efforts.

Scriptural Foundation

The World Mission Society Church of God Arlington bases its teachings on the Bible, interpreting scriptures with a unique perspective that highlights the role of God the Mother and the fulfillment of end-time prophecies. Regular Bible study sessions and sermons aim to deepen members' understanding of these teachings and their practical application in daily life.
